Aged Care

Welcome

The Salvation Army has been providing care in Australia since 1880. The Salvation Army Aged Care's purpose is to promote a unique experience of choice, lifestyle and belonging for all people as they age.

Our difference

- Holistic and person-centred care based on The Salvation Army's values of integrity, compassion, respect, diversity and collaboration
- Caring, qualified and experienced staff
- Pastoral and chaplaincy services available
- A government accredited provider that you know and trust.

Life in our centre

Elizabeth Jenkins Place Aged Care Centre offers a caring and supportive lifestyle. Our spacious and modern home is designed in consultation with industry experts with generous community spaces and a wide range of single, interconnected and extra service rooms to suit different needs, tastes and budgets.

Our staff and chaplains go beyond clinical needs to cater for the physical, emotional and spiritual well-being of our residents. We operate on the principles of person-centred care, where we learn what is important to each individual and provide programs tailored to their preferences.

We offer choice and diversity for all residents to ensure that their quality of life is maintained at an optimum level. We also recognise the importance of family and friends so we welcome them to be an active part of our community. We regularly engage with the local community and provide a wide range of recreational activities.

Our care team

Elizabeth Jenkins Place Aged Care Centre is led by the Centre Manager. Together with our Care Manager, Chaplain, Registered Nurses, team of specialists and care staff, we ensure that every resident is healthy, comfortable and loved.

The Salvation Army acknowledges the Traditional Owners of country throughout Australia and recognises their continuing connection to land, waters and community.

We pay our respects to them and their cultures; and to elders both past, present and emerging.
