Aged Care

Welcome

The Salvation Army has been providing aged care in Australia since 1899. Our purpose is to promote a unique experience of choice, lifestyle and belonging to all people as they age.

Our difference

- Person-centred model of care, including specialist dementia care
- Dedicated and qualified staff
- A government accredited provider that you know and trust
- Pastoral and chaplaincy services available
- As a not-for-profit, any additional funds go to support the most vulnerable in the community.

Life in our centre

The Cairns Aged Care Centre at Chapel Hill offers a caring and supportive lifestyle. Our spacious and modern home is designed in consultation with industry experts with generous community spaces and a range of single and interconnected rooms to suit different needs, tastes and budgets.

Our staff and chaplains go beyond clinical needs to cater for the physical, emotional and spiritual well-being of our residents. We operate on the principles of person-centred care, where we learn what is important to each individual and provide programs tailored to their preferences.

We offer choice and diversity for all residents to ensure that their quality of life is maintained at an optimum level. We also recognise the importance of family and friends so we welcome them to be an active part of our community. We regularly engage with the local community and provide a wide range of recreational activities.
